

About Us

Cornwall Manor is a not-for-profit continuing care retirement community established in 1949 in the historic borough of Cornwall, Lebanon County.

Cornwall Manor offers many housing choices—from studios and suites to apartments to homes. Coupled with on-site health care like personal care, skilled nursing, therapy services and a visiting physician's office and a vast array of services and amenities—Cornwall Manor is more than a beautiful place to retire—it's a beautiful place to be!

Cornwall Manor is in mission with The Eastern Pennsylvania Conference of The United Methodist Church.

An Active Senior Living Community

Lifestyle Choices- Buckingham Campus

The 85-acre Buckingham Campus offers both existing apartments and homes and new apartments at The Carriage House.

Also available on the Buckingham Campus is a community center with meeting space and dining; the Wright Family Wellness Center with a pool and fitness center; outpatient therapy services; personal care and skilled nursing; Zerr Chapel, library, Manypenny Recreational Room, Activities and Craft Room, walking trails and much more.

Lifestyle Choices- The Woods

Cornwall Manor's expanded 190-acre campus "The Woods," is located less than a mile from the Buckingham Campus.

New single and duplex homes at The Woods range in square footage from 1180 to 1800+. Upgrades are available, allowing you to customize your home. Reservations for our third neighborhood, "The Grove" are being accepted now.

The Woods connects to the Buckingham Campus via the Lebanon Valley Rail Trail and Woods residents enjoy all the amenities and services that Cornwall Manor has to offer.
