

About Us

Cornwall Manor is a not-for-profit continuing care retirement community established in 1949 in the historic borough of Cornwall, Lebanon County.

Cornwall Manor offers many housing choices including apartments and homes. Coupled with on-site health care like personal care, skilled nursing, therapy services and a visiting physician's office and a vast array of services and amenities—Cornwall Manor is more than a beautiful place to retire—it's a beautiful place to be!

Cornwall Manor is in mission with The Eastern Pennsylvania Conference of The United Methodist Church.
