Cornwall Manor has meeting facilities and campus tours available for groups ranging in size from 2 to 200.

Cornwall Manor is a 550-resident not-for-profit continuing care retirement community. Founded in 1949, Cornwall Manor is located on 195 acres in historic Lebanon County. A portion of the campus is situated on the former estate of the Coleman Family who owned and operated the Cornwall Iron Furnace.

Cornwall Manor offers a continuum of care, allowing an individual to access various levels of health care. There is a wide variety of residential living accommodations in addition to a 108-bed Health Center and 30 personal care units. A full range of health services are available on campus, from routine medical check-ups to physical therapy treatments.
